

The Quadrangle at Babson College / Wellesley, Massachusetts

Erland constructed the three major buildings that form the Babson College Quadrangle. Because they were built simultaneously and in close proximity on this active campus, we developed a phased construction plan that respected the project budget and schedule and ensured the safety of the entire school community and surrounding neighborhood.

Richard W. Sorenson Center for the Arts

Area: 17,000sf

Architect: William Rawn Associates

Awards: U.S. Institute of Theater
Technology Honor Award

Donald W. Reynolds Campus Center

Area: 57,000sf

Architect: William Rawn Associates

Awards: New England AIA, Merit Award

Glavin Family Chapel

Area: 6,000sf

Architect: William Rawn Associates

Awards: Boston Society of Architects:
Honor Awards

New England AIA: Honor Award

IFRAA: Religious Art &
Architecture Design Award